

Catholic schools must remain accessible to all families who choose them

- Catholic schools play a valuable role in Australia's social, cultural and economic life.
- Catholic schools have provided quality education for Australian children since 1820.
- Today, Catholic schools educate around 255,000 students in NSW – that's 1 in 5 school students.
- Without State and Federal funding, Catholic education would become unaffordable for most families.

This is why Catholic schools must secure a fair share of Federal and State Government support – to maintain education quality and to ensure a Catholic education remains affordable for all families.
