

Catholic schools must remain accessible to all families who choose them

- Catholic schools play a valuable role in Australia's social, cultural and economic life.
- Catholic schools are committed to supporting all families, no matter their economic or social circumstances. Our schools educate children who are Catholic, non-Catholic, poor, wealthy, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and/or have a disability.
- Catholic schools also serve some of the most disadvantaged in our communities, and this commitment is only made possible through continued government funding.

This is why Catholic schools must secure a fair share of Federal and State Government support – to maintain education quality and to ensure a Catholic education remains affordable for all families.
