

Catholic schools must remain accessible to all families who choose them

- Catholic schools play a valuable role in Australia's social, cultural and economic life.
- Enrolments of students with a disability and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students have been the fastest growing segments in NSW Catholic schools for the past 20 years.
- Catholic schools meet the educational needs of the entire spectrum of Australian society.

This is why Catholic schools must secure a fair share of Federal and State Government support – to maintain education quality and to ensure a Catholic education remains affordable for all families.
