

Catholic schools must remain accessible to all families who choose them

- Catholic schools play a valuable role in Australia's social, cultural and economic life.
- Catholic schools represent excellent value for money for parents who seek a faith-based education for their children. Government funding is allocated to keep school fees affordable and ensure parents can have this choice, no matter where they live.

This is why Catholic schools must secure a fair share of Federal and State Government support – to maintain education quality and to ensure a Catholic education remains affordable for all families.
